Residential on 0.14 Acres

BRUNSWICK, Brunswick, MD

Open House Saturday 11/1 This 2 beds/2-bath colonial is convenient and close, but has a street to herself with plenty of privacy. And, YES there is a detached garage in great condition! An expert craftsman has spent the last four years investing his skills into this home which boasts a completely remodeled kitchen with a convenient washer/dryer on the main floor. The first floor has all new flooring. Electric and plumbing have been updated. The roof and AC were both replaced during this time. Upstairs, the spacious bathroom has been remodeled with a separate antique claw-foot tub and a tiled shower with pebbled floor. The stone foundation was repaired to include drainage. In the basement, the stone joints have been pointed and the walls have been parged and drylocked. This clean, dry basement includes shelving and a coal/wood burner to boost your electric heat pump in the winter and the wood for this winter is already there! You can trust the basement stairs, custom-built to fit by professional welders or use the easy access Bilco doors from the exterior. Be sure to see the basement! The basement supports that were used to precisely level the main floor are solid steel! No saggy, creaky floors! The steel beam supports for the deck could likely support an addition if that was desired. The deck and gazebo provide luxurious entertaining. Perched on a hill for the perfect view of the mountains and more. Fenced yard. Chimney has a new stainless-steel liner.

The structural posts and railing on the front porch were fortified. There is really too much to list! Come see it! Appraised last year at $325,000 before much of this work was done! May qualify for USDA No Money Down financing! Easy walk to the MARC train , the C&O Canal and the Potomac River! Why pay thousands each month to rent in DC when you can have a peaceful commute and small town living for a fraction of the cost?
